FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Stark County District Library to host TomTod's summer Dreamoratory

Canton, Ohio - April 30, 2014 - The Stark County District Library will collaborate with TomTod Ideas to present the Canton Dreamoratory, a week of immersion, imagination, and creating centered on the challenges and hopes of Canton. The summer camp for students who have just finished grades five through eight will be at a separate location on Sunday, June 22 and daily at the downtown library from Monday, June 23, through Saturday, June 28.

The $225 fee includes all supplies, instruction, meals (lunch and dinner Monday through Saturday), transportation, and facilities. Scholarships are available. Register online at www.tomtodideas.org/summerdreams.

Students will meet with community leaders and officials, visit key venues throughout the city, participate in a week of creative thinking, and close with a special Saturday evening program.

TomTod Ideas empowers middle school students to launch absurd ideas that enhance the common good. "We release the potential of tomorrow today," said Abby Segers, who will lead the summer session. Learn more about TomTod at tomtodideas.org.

The Stark County District Library is located at 715 Market Ave N, in downtown Canton. For more information, call the Stark County District Library at 330.458.2754 or visit www.starklibrary.org.
