FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TomTod partners to bring Girl Rising to the Canton Palace Theatre

Canton, OH - April 4, 2014 - TomTod Ideas partners with other non-profits and corporate sponsors to bring the film Girl Rising to the Canton Palace Theatre on April 6.

Doors open at 2 p.m. and the show begins at 3 p.m. All tickets for the showing have been purchased. Corporate sponsors include The Repository and DeHOFF Realtors. Proceeds benefit TomTod Ideas, P.A.T.H.S. (Partners Against the Trafficking of Humans-Stark) and Soroptimist International of Canton/Stark County, in corporation with Stark County Educators.

“TomTod has a unique opportunity to partner with other non-profits and corporate sponsors who support education,” said TomTod Ideas Executive Dreamer, Joel Harris. “We believe this film will spark a community wide education conversation.”

Girl Rising is an award winning feature film about the strength of the human spirit and the power of education to transform societies. The film presents the remarkable stories of nine girls around the world facing formidable obstacles and shares their journey to overcome these challenges through education.

Presented with arresting visuals and narrated by Meryl Streep, Alicia Keys, and Ann Hathaway (among many others), Girl Rising carries a challenge to each viewer to consider their role in advancing the cause of girls around the globe.

The desire of the corporate sponsors and non-profit partners is to bring awareness, begin a community conversation about education and girls, and to further the work of organizations that work toward living out this conversation.

For more information on Girl Rising visit their website at www.girlrising.com.
