TomTod Ideas moves into Main Branch of Stark County District Library

Canton, Ohio – January 8, 2015- TomTod Ideas has moved into the Main Branch of the Stark County District Library—The Smart Store, where everything is free®. TomTod is the first outside organization to rent office space at the Library.

The move signifies the collaboration between both organizations. The Main Branch hosted TomTod's 2014 Canton Dreamoratory, a week long summer camp experience for middle schoolers centered on the assets and challenges of Canton.

TomTod Ideas and the Stark County District Library share similar values, which led to the transition. Both organizations encourage living SMART through education, innovation and community development.

“The Smart Store® enthusiastically welcomes TomTod Ideas to the Main Library branch location,” said Tena Wilson, Executive Director at Stark County District Library. “The energy that TomTod Ideas brings to the community embody the cultivation of learning focused on at the Library,” Wilson added. This is the beginning of a new era of partnerships for the Library.

TomTod occupies office space on the 2nd floor of the library, off of the teen department. TomTod employees will share the area with Library staff. The space will include an innovation area where staff and visitors can brainstorm ideas to enrich the community.

TomTod Ideas is a non-profit organization that empowers middle school students to launch absurd ideas that enhance the common good. They release the power of tomorrow, today. To learn more visit www.tomtodideas.org.
